

Dietzgen Announces NEW Products

Magellan by Dietzgen was designed to provide high quality wide format media for the growing demands of the Reprographic, Commercial Graphic, Fine Art and Photographic Reproduction industries. Dietzgen's goal is to keep in pace with the fast growing printer technique changes and provide a premium wide format product line. We at Dietzgen are pleased to announce our Aqueous Line.

At Dietzgen, customer service is about building relationships. We strive to become your print solution partner. Our team brings years of experience and a passion to work with customers to provide the tools and products needed to achieve a competitive edge in the marketplace.

To learn more about the products contact customer service 800.473.1200, your local sales representative or visit www.dietzgen.com

782/783 - 7mil 170gm² Universal Microporous Gloss and Satin Photo Base

The superior instant dry coating is optimized for all thermal and piezo water-based Canon, HP, Epson and similar printers. Ideal for graphic art reproductions, photography and presentations.

Changes to 790/791 - We've improved the coating and increased the basis weight to 200gm² 8.5mil

790/791 is a high quality premium Fine Art microporous photo base for all thermal and piezo water-based Canon, HP, Epson and similar printers Solvent Line

926/928 - Economical Gloss or Matte Scrim Vinyl Banner

High quality economical 10oz banner material in gloss or matte designed for solvent, eco-solvent and UV curable printer technology for short term in-door and out-door banners